

- 1) Imagine a dialogue between you and a new friend from abroad. Ask and answer about his / her name, age, nationality, country of birth, family, best friend(s), pet(s) and hobby(-ies).
- 2) Imagine a dialogue between you and a new friend. Talk about your families. Describe the members of your families (colour of eyes, hair, height, weight)
- 3) Imagine a dialogue between you and a friend of yours. Ask and answer about what he / she can / can't do.
- 4) Imagine a dialogue between two friends at the zoo. Talk about your favourite animals.
- 5) Talk about your favourite school subjects and spare time activities.
- 6) Imagine a dialogue at the baker's.
- 7) Imagine a dialogue at the grocer's.
- 8) Imagine a dialogue at the greengrocer's.
- 9) Imagine a dialogue at the butcher's.
- 10) Imagine a dialogue at the chemist's.
- 11) Imagine a dialogue at the toy shop.
- 12) Imagine a dialogue at the pet shop.
- 13) In pairs, talk about your daily programmes.
- 14) Choose a job somebody can have. In pairs, ask and answer about his / her day.

COMPUNERI- Clasa a IV a

1. Write an e-mail message to a new friend. Mention your name, age, nationality. Tell him/her about yourself, your family, best friends, pets and hobbies.
2. Invite your friend to your house. Describe it and mention how he/she can get there. Use directions and your address.
3. Describe your room and write rules for it. Mention what you can/can't do there(CAN x 3; CAN'T x 3)
4. Write about your favourite school subjects. Mention why you like them.
5. Write about your favourite day. Use the Simple Present and the following words: usually, sometimes, always, never, often .
6. Write about your daily programme. Use the Simple Present and the following words: usually, sometimes, always, never, often .
7. Choose a job somebody can have. Describe a day in his/her life. Use the Simple Present and the following words: usually, sometimes, always, never, often
8. Write about your favourite animal(s).
9. Describe what you and your family usually do at Christmas. Use the Simple Present.
10. Write about your hobbies and spare time activities. Mention why you like them.
11. Inclusive toate textele din manualul de clasa a IV-a (conform programei in vigoare).